

Dear [REDACTED]

We hope you are all doing well... The current covid safety measures continue to effect the events that we have planned for you. However, we will be back with more activities and events, as soon as government regulations will allow us.

The GOOD NEWS is that St. Nicholas will be paying us a visit again next month! On Sunday, December 5th in the afternoon, he will organize a Zoom meeting to talk to all the kids personally! Make sure you are prepared and

- check out this video to see what his Helpers have been up to
- register for the meet and greet before November 27th
- St. Nicholas will bring some extra presents for the winners of our coloring contest. Take out your crayons, coloring pencils or markers and submit your coloring page via normal mail to the address mentioned in the registration invitation above. St. Nicholas and his Helpers will select their four favourites.
- finally, please be informed that this event is free to BLAS members and/or DEME families who will receive priority. Any additional slots may be given to non-members on a first come first serve basis (see details in registration form).

We also recently reposted our BLAS photo walk for those of you who missed it last year, but especially for our new members who have arrived in Singapore since. We hope you will enjoy exploring beautiful Singapore in a different way.

As soon as five (or more) fully vaccinated people are allowed for social gatherings, we will restart our walking, cooking and mahjong groups. We also hope to soon (re)organise the ladies and men only nights.

Stay tuned for more !
